LATE SPORTING NEWS

was not in a minor league last year was Padden. As the Washington club now stands it is an aggregation of fast, ambitious young fellows, excellent fielders and more or less hard hitters. They lack balance as yet, and confidence, and they need a good pitcher or two, but they are formidable at any stage, and they are likely to cut a fairly respectable figure in the race from this time on.—Baltimore Sun.

CRICKET WITH LUNCH AND TEA.

Prodigious Preparations for the Australian and All England Match.
LONDON, June 15.—The famous test cricket match between the visiting Australian team and an eleven representing all England opened at Lord's grounds today with magnificent weather. There were about 25,000 people present. Tickets for the match have been much sought after, the price of seats ranging from $10 downward. There was the usual display of drags, carriages and brilliant toilet.

The caterers expect to serve 5,000 lunches and 10,000 teas daily. Some 600 waiters have been employed.

The English team won the toss and went to the wickets. The batters found the wicket was uncomfortably fast and the home players were put out rapidly. At lunch time they had lost six wickets for a total of 147 runs.

BEN HALLADAY HAS TOP WEIGHT.

The Suburban Handicap to Be Run at Sheepshead Saturday.

The lovers of horsethief all over the country will turn their eyes toward Sheepshead bay Saturday, when the great Suburban race will be run. Present indications are that fully twenty horses will go to the post, with Ben Halladay carrying top weight. This field will be the largest that has lined up for several years back, only eleven starting last year, and nine in 1897. Banaster's great victory of the Brooklyn handicap will doubtless make him a big favorite, and it is a curious fact that the six first horses, touted to have more than a good chance to win, have names that begin with the letter "B." Banaster, Ben Halladay, Briar Sweet, Bannockburn, Box and Bangle. The horses with ages, weights and probable riders, are as follows:

Horse.	Age.	Weight.	Jockey.
Ben Halladay	6	125	T. J. Ryan
Banaster	4	122	M. J. Maher
Briar Sweet	4	121	Bullman
Bannockburn	4	119	Spencer

Battle of the Chess Experts.

The battle of the chessmasters continued at London yesterday, the twelfth round of the international chessmaster being inaugurated. Tinsley was defeated by Lasker, Steinitz won from John and Showalter lost to Maroczy. Pillsbury lowered his color to Janowski and Mason surrendered after a hard game, to Lee. Blackburne drew, Marshall, the American, drew both his games against Mieses and Miller, respectively, in the minor tournament. He therefore won the first prize to the value of $300. Marco and Physick divided the second and third prizes to the value of $250 and $150, Jones and Mieses divided the fourth and fifth prizes to the value of $100 and $75. Jackson and Smith divided the sixth and seventh prizes to the value of $60 and $25. Following is the final record of the minor tournament, the figures before the dash denoting games won and those after the dash games lost:

Marshall, 8½-3½; Marco, 8-3½; Physick, 8-3½; Jones, 7½-3½; Mieses, 7½-3½; Jackson, 5½-5½; Smith, 5½-5½; Muller, 5-4; Esser, 4-2; Rubinstein, 3½-7½; Bruckner, 3-8; Kilmach, 0-11.

Domination Again Beats the Yankee.

The third of the series of races between the Canadian yacht Dominion and the Yankee, owned by the White Bear Yacht Club of St. Paul, was sailed yesterday on Lake St. Louis, Quebec. There was a stiff breeze blowing, and the race furnished a pretty sight. The home buoy was turned first by the Dominion, which finally won, crossing the line at 3:27, while the Yankee finished at 3:28.55. Another race will be sailed today.

Enthusiasm of the Potomacs.

One of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held by the Potomac Boat Club was that of last night at their club house. Nineteen new members were elected to the club, and the acting captain, Mr. Robt. Heth, was given authority to go ahead and arrange for such regattas as he might deem necessary. There is every prospect that an eight-oared race with the Annapolis will take place early in July, and that a junior eight-oared crew will go to the Labor day regatta in September. Mr. Jules Crow, the single sculler, will be entered at Philadelphia on July 4 in the People's regatta.

One of the most healthful sections of the country in which to spend the heated term is the famous Springs Region of the Virginias, reached direct by the Chesapeake and Ohio railway. Dr. Joseph Holt, who ranks among the foremost sanitarians of the world, says: "I consider the mountains of Virginia as a natural sanitarium, where visitors from warm latitudes, and especially from crowded centers, may surely enjoy the benefits of waste-restoring stimulus, which insures a rapid recuperation and the very best preparation for renewed health and a long sustained activity in the occupation of a busy and often overworked life."

PREMIUMS DISTRIBUTED.

Interesting Exercises at Academy of the Visitation.

The forty-ninth annual distribution of premiums took place yesterday at the Academy of the Visitation, on Connecticut avenue. According to a decision recently made, the closings of this well-known institution will in the future be held strictly private, as was the case yesterday.

The large music hall of the academy presented the usual attractive appearance, the stage being a scene of beauty, with its spreading palms, flower-hung harps, huge bunches of roses and daisies, and the green and white bunting, the colors of the senior class, were gracefully draped around the railing and staircases.

The apostolic benediction was the guest of honor, while the stage on either side of him was occupied by a large body of distinguished clergymen. On the opposite side of the stage were seated the young ladies of the senior class, while the younger pupils on white-covered benches near the front of the stage formed a bright, pretty picture with their white robes and fresh young faces.

The exercises were opened by a well written salutatory by Miss Muriel Ingalls, followed by the two solo songs rendered by Miss Alice Wheeler and Miss Emily Doran. A violin solo was given by Miss Muriel Ingalls, and the "Ave Maria" by Miss Edna Sheehy. An original essay by Miss Ethel Benton followed, and this was succeeded by a solo by Miss Lillian Small, an instrumental solo by Miss Nannie Gibson.

The gold medals awarded were as follows: For Christian doctrine, senior department, to Miss Juliet Ayres; intermediate department, to Miss Marie Sheehy; in the fifth class, to Miss Marie Fisher; in the sixth class, to Miss Anna Allen, and in the seventh class, to Miss Nellie Stoddard. Merit, eight years of age. In the first class the medals for studies were awarded to Miss Muriel Ingalls, and in the second class, the medal for history and composition was awarded to Miss Fanny Harkness. In the third class the medal for French conversation was drawn by Miss Ayres. In the third class the French medal was awarded to Miss Juliet Ayres. In the fifth class to Miss Muriel Ingalls; in the sixth class to Miss Alice Wheeler; in the seventh class to Miss Emily Doran.

In the division of the fourth class, Miss Gertrude Davis and Marie Line Bouscaren being equal in merit, the medal was drawn by Miss Davis. In the second class, Miss Juliet Ayres and Fanny Harkness being equal in merit, the medal for French conversation was drawn by Miss Ayres. In the third class the French medal was awarded to Miss Juliet Ayres. In the fifth class to Miss Muriel Ingalls; in the sixth class to Miss Alice Wheeler; in the seventh class to Miss Emily Doran.

These exercises mark the conclusion of the use of the present building and the removal of the school to the commodious structure now nearing completion, two miles south of Gaithersburg.

Monday's storm wrought great damage throughout the upper section of Montgomery county. Growing crops suffered the most injury, many fields of grain being ruined. At Damascus the roof of the Methodist Episcopal Church was blown off and the whole interior flooded.
